A Home Away From Home

"A PLACE CALLED HOME" MURAL

State Auto Insurance Building

Washington & Spring Streets, Downtown

In the quilts filled with artist Aminah Robinson's childhood memories, Mt. Vernon Avenue crawls with life. Smiling people fill the colorful, business-lined street, ready to dance at the Limelight Lounge or line up at Isaly's Ice Cream. Across from the Columbus Museum of Art, which is planning a permanent learning center around Robinson, her work has been recreated by CCAD students as a public mural, down to the hand stitching and button border.
